A.G.M. at Victoria Halls

SUNDAY'S 70th birthday year annual general meeting of the Concert Artists Association proved to be a minor triumph.

Six months ago, the Special General Meeting facing possible financial crisis, became the occasion of reluctant necessity to raise subscriptions. During a period when the whole country was and is in more difficult, the club's responsive loyalty of members enabled the committee to face the future with some confidence.

During the long, closely argued, but never acrimonious meeting, madam chairman, Rowena Vincent, had complete control and easily cleared up obscure points.

So, too, did hon. treasurer, George Rissen, who had assumed office unexpectedly, faced an immediate crisis launched by the Appeal Fund, immensely successful, bringing in a duly needed £1,200, and the committee's innovation of the "club scene" for some years, previously at the Balmoral Top Hat, Windmill and Embassy Clubs. Mr.
Waugh along with M.D. Ron Woodhall, Terry Clayton, and Bill O'Connor are really doing things here.

NICE to see and hear English based, American born Ronnie Hall again, back at the Carlton Club, Cheshire. After a too long absence Ronnie gave us another sample of his vocal impeccability, which is star quality at any level.
I asked myself why not bigger things for this boy—but I unfortunately cannot find the answer.

THE spring night out scene is getting well under way at Ripley, where the Cock Hall management are booking crowd-pulling names like Terry Lightfoot and his Jazzmen and Television comedy boy Paul Martin. These two highly contrasting acts kicked off the series with S.R.O. audiences.

WITH one record out on the commercial market and another on the way, "The Paperback Edition", Derbyshire's own "soul" sound are going over very well on the pub and club circuit. Recently at the Hardinge Mansions, Melbourn and the Sherwood Club, Derby, they met with a very favourable reception. Manager Paul Newton has just fixed up a couple of full-time road managers to help about that for a success symbol?

THE sold-out sign seems to work overtime for Mr. Johnson at the Albion Restaurant, Derby. They are in evidence again for Bob Mon-house's visit and "The Redcoats Show". Very nice. Later on the Barron Knights and Les Dawson are booked—could be a repeat formula!

All present were happy to welcome back Edwin Spencer, Clay Thomas and Saxon Davis, absent for some time through sickness or accident, and "Sax" was able to hear her brother Bill. Davis is to be given honorary life membership for many years' devoted work. A similar honour was conferred on Mr. T. Norris, a regular benefactor of the C.A.A.

Cardew Robinson was elected as President for the ensuing year, and was very evidently delighted and appreciated. No more popular or deserved choice for Vice President than George Rissen could have been made, and Jack Crossbie was elected Deputy Treasurer.

FIFTH TIME AT GREASBROUGH

MR. PARROTFACE DAVIES started a spring, took this week (March 31) by making his fifth appearance at Greasbrough where he is one of the most popular artists ever presented at this club.

He follows this with a week each at The Latino, South Shields April 7, 8, 9, Cardiff April 14, 15, The Garrick, Leigh April 28; Dolce Vita, Newcastle and Tio's Stockton, May 5, and Dolce Vita, Birmingham May 12.

This follows a three month run playing the title rôle in "The Pied Piper" at the Alhambra, Bradford, described by Theatre Manager Rowland Hill as "one of the biggest pantomime successes ever seen in Bradford, and one which, but for prior arrangements, could easily have run another two weeks."

A great achievement for Freddie in his first appearance as top star in a big stage production. During the summer he will be re-starring with Josef Locke at the Queen's Theatre, Blackpool from June 29.

DERBYSHIRE DIARY

by Johnnie Singleton

FULL houses again at South Normanton's Theatre Bar for the all time favourite Zareada, with his astounding and highly entertaining mind-reading act, which always leaves hundreds of patrons wondering how? — along with the immaculate balladeer and recording artist Johnny St. George, who is also a big draw in this area. Northern impresario Frank Taylor has fixed this talented twosome with 19 summer weeks at his Sands Theatre Club, Blackpool—and anticipates record box office.

NEW occupant of the manager's chair at Workshop's Ace-of-Clubs E. Waugh takes over after being connected with the Derby night club scene for some years, previously at the Balmoral Top Hat,
Windmill and Embassy Clubs. Mr.
Waugh along with M.D. Ron Wood-
hall, Terry Clayton, and Bill
here.

PUPPETS

By Charles Trentham

AN Easter Vacation Course, daily from April 16 to 20, is being held at the Educational Puppetry Association headquarters, in Southampton Place, W.C.1, aiming at giving a sound working knowledge of glove puppetry by practical work and instruction. A. R. Philpott is the tutor. There will be a Summer Vacation Course in August, and an Autumn Evening Course over nine Wednesdays, from September 25.

THE "Polka" children's theatre, of which combines actors and puppets, at the Yvonne Arnaud Guildford, all this week, is at the Arts, Cambridge, all next week.

THE Charivari Puppets, directed by Violet Philpotts, with Glyn Edwards, were at the London Arts last week-end, for the second set of their Saturday-Sunday matinees.

PUPPETS as well as actors appear in "Hansel and Gretel," one of the new productions in the Spring Season of the Midlands Arts Theatre at Cannon Hill Park, Birmingham. Directed by Terry Lane and planned to appeal specially to young children, "Hansel and Gretel" (puppets by John Blundall) has its premiere yesterday.

CLIFFORD HEAP'S Miniature Theatre and the Théâtre des Marionnettes Liegeois (Belgium) are the latest additions to next month's International Puppet Festival at Colwyn Bay. Festival Director Christopher Somerville says that there will probably be a company from Mexico as well.

THE "Allami Babz Babszinhaz" (Budapest Puppet Theatre), paying its first visit to this country, in addition to being at the Alderburgh Festival, will be part of the
