MARKET MORALE GETS A BOOST

Steels give outstanding display

THE by-election results gave a much needed boost to morale in London Stock Markets yesterday, and they enjoyed their best day of the week.

day of the week.

Dealers put up prices right from the start, but business failed to expand to any extent, and fell away to luttle more than a trickle during the afternoon, when many people had left for the Whitsun holiday.

There was sufficient support lowever to maintain the higher price levels.

Rest shares were ocustanding in the industrial late, with United shooting alyaed is &
